

Pre-Conference Guide

Welcome to the 4th Annual G7N Conference. We're honored that you have demonstrated your faith in the future of this group through your commitment to attend. We promise an interesting and beneficial experience that promotes smart business decisions and discussions amongst all attendees who hail from all over the globe.

Expect a warm Cocktail Reception as we watch the sunset go down and gather around the pool, where we will be celebrating all different cultures in what will be a perfect ice-breaker to a great event.

Havana Night is the theme for the Gala Dinner which will be located on the beach front under the stars and of course the mainstay of any conference, expect a few surprises. Finally the plenary session where we will welcome guest speakers, discuss the networks future implementations and of course the 1:1 Meetings.

For seasoned G7N conference attendees, you will know that this is our 4th Annual Conference and will be the biggest and best yet! So, just as with the newer members, please get out to each and every activity and show your face to new and old members alike.

This G7N Pre-Conference Guide provides delegates with the information that will help you prepare for the 4th Annual G7N Conference and assist you in getting the most out of the event.

As you read the G7N Pre-Conference Guide, please remember that if you have any questions they can and will be answered promptly by email to conference@g7networks.com or members@g7networks.com

Key Arrival Information

Thailand Entry Requirements Updates: https://www.thaiembassy.com/thailand-travel-restrictions-updates

Please note that these requirements are subject to change by the government of Thailand.

Please fly into Suvarnabhumi International Airport, Bangkok (BKK). Alternatively you can opt for Don Mueang International Airport (DMK). Please arrive in Bangkok prior to the G7 Convoy registration at 10 am on the morning of September 20th. We would suggest arriving on the 19th of September, or earlier, and staying the night in Bangkok so you are fresh and ready for the G7 Convoy. The G7 Convoy departs from "The Bangkok Base" (Landmark, Bangkok) on the Tuesday morning.

IMPORTANT – G7N is providing the G7 Convoy only. Other transfers, including airport taxis, are to be arranged by delegates at their own expense.

Day of Arrival

Arrive at Suvarnabhumi International Airport, Bangkok and

You can book a taxi yourself from the airport to Landmark Hotel Bangkok if you have booked for the convoy.

If you haven't booked for the convoy, and want to go to Hua Hin directly, you can arrange the limo service from Bangkok Airport to the hotel.

If you have booked for the convoy, make sure to be at The Landmark Hotel Bangkok by 10 am for the registration.

Convoy leaves at 11 am sharp. We will not wait for the delegates being late.

As Thailand being hot, don't forget to wear light and breezy clothes, carry your hats, and to save yourself from sudden drizzle you can get an umbrella as well.

Sunscreen is also one of the most important things in Thailand, just a reminder.

Once you have arrived in Hua Hin, the G7 Conference will be at the Avani Hua Hin. The G7 Team will be there to assist you with the registration and rooms.

- The registration in Hua Hin starts from 9 am till 6 pm
- Room check-in starts at 3 pm.

Avani Hua Hin

Set along the Gulf of Thailand, this modern resort on leafy grounds is 6 km from Hua Hin Airport.

Airy rooms provide minibars and free Wi-Fi, as well as flat-screen TVs, tea and coffee-makers, and balconies or terraces; some have glass-enclosed bathrooms. Upgraded rooms, suites and villas add Jacuzzis, living areas and/or private pools.

There's a relaxed international eatery, a waterfront Italian restaurant, and a cocktail lounge with regular live jazz performances, plus terrace and poolside bars. Other amenities include a spa, a gym and outdoor pools, in addition to beach access and a kids' club.

This 5 star venue will also be the location for our Cocktail Reception and Havana Nights themed Gala Dinner.

Bangkok Base (The Landmark Hotel)

For all those early arrivals that will be in Bangkok a few days before the conference begins in Hua Hin on the 20th of September, we are excited to announce that the venue for the Bangkok Base and the location of where the G7 Convoy will depart from, will be The Landmark Hotel.

The Landmark Hotel is an all-round impressive hotel offering 31 stories of elegant and spacious accommodation comprising 399 rooms, including suites. Their accommodation and in-house restaurants are of the highest international standards, while the service is sublimely Thai.

Surrounded by popular attractions, The Landmark Hotel is a haven for upscale business travel and family vacations. Find your respite in spacious hotel rooms and suites, appointed modern amenities and beautiful Thai-inspired accents. Savor distinctive cuisine at a diversity of restaurants, showcasing delicious Chinese, Japanese and Thai flare in stylish settings.

Guests have a choice of 6 room types ranging in size from 26sqm to 78sqm with complimentary Wi-Fi internet, convenient Media Hub for multi-media connectivity and a 40-inch High Definition television set.

As is the case with every year, we have arranged that all attending delegates will have discounted rates that will only apply with 3 different room types and 20% discount on food only in all restaurants except room service.

IT THE REAL PROPERTY.

Video Presentations for 1:1 Meetings

It is strongly recommended that all G7N Conference Delegates, intending to use a video as a visual aid during their 1:1 meetings, bring their own PC, tablet, and/or portable thumb drive device, etc. with the video already on the physical device. Wireless internet can be unpredictable and can lead to frustration. Bringing your own company content can cut down on the possibility of an unexpected outage affecting your presentation.

Promotional Items

At the registration desk, conference delegates will be able to display any promotional items of their company. Fellow delegates will therefore be able to peruse these items at their discretion.

Dress Code: Smart Business Casual to present the professionalism during 1:1 Meetings

Conference Check-in Registration

The check-in registration for the 4th Annual G7N Conference on the first day, will be open from 14:00-18:00, and you can check in your room starting from 15:00.

On the second day you can register from 8:00-18:00. This has been arranged in a way that is convenient to members who will be arriving late or are not participating in the G7N Convoy

Check-out

All delegates should check-out from the hotel on 23rd September, by 12 noon.

Departure

You can book for 'G7 Limo Service' from the registration desk from Day 1 of the conference for the Airport.
