Things to do around Khao Lak...

Near Khao Lak, there are many attractions to see and experience during your visit to the G7N Conference.

There are 3 islands in Phang Nga province: Koh Khai-Nok, Koh Khai-Nai, Koh Khai-Nui. On these three islands, you can dive and see corals.

The first island, Koh Khai-Nui is a popular place for tourists to snorkel. Next is Koh Khai-Nai with white sandy beaches on a beautiful island. With clean water and beaches, you can snorkel easily, and see colorful fish, along with the east side of the island, has an elephant's head rock and three turtle rocks. which are natural sculptures made by the erosion of wind.

The last island is Koh Khai-Nok, which is a small island with white sand. The fine gazelles use clear water, light green, and blue water perfect for snorkeling and enjoying the best nature has to offer, around Khao Lak...

Things to do

Khao Phing Kan or mostly known as James Bond is an island in Thailand, in Phang Nga Bay northeast of Phuket. Almost an hour's distance from Khao Lak, this island has a distinctive trait of the number of sheer limestone cliffs that vertically jut out of the emerald-green water. James Bond Island is a popular destination for sailing and kayaking and has been a major attraction since it was featured in the 1974 Bond movie.

Things to do around Khao Lak...

Phi Phi Island, a 1:30-minute ride from Khao Lak by ferry has some of the best snorkeling spots in southern Thailand. The larger of the Phi Phi islands are ringed by beautiful beaches and private bays. Above the azure seas, you have striking limestone cliffs, white sands, and nodding palms. Below, there are colorful coral reefs and vibrant sea life. When the tide is right, places like Monkey Bay are accessible with the coral just below the surface with brightly colored fish darting here and there, just inches from your mask.
