MEMBER VISITS

Feb 25, 2025

What a memorable evening spent with G7N friends, enjoying the stunning Dubai sunset! Our Director, Melvin Xavier together with Tatiana Ageeva and Anu Verma, hosted an intimate dinner for our G7N community in Dubai. They savored great conversation and a glass of wine, all while talking in the breathtaking views of Dubai.

Sometimes, it's essential to take a break from business and simply enjoy quality time with friends. It's not always about work—relaxing and having fun together builds stronger bonds and trust, which ultimately helps move the business forward in ways we may not even realize. Fun and relaxation are one of the keys for success!

Schedule Meetings with Inbound Leads

If you've received RFQs from potential partners, plan strategic meetings in advance to strengthen business relationships.

Bring a Bottle from Your Country

A great icebreaker that sparks conversation. Share a taste of home during the opening cocktail and connect with fellow attendees.

Thoughtful Giveaways

Show appreciation to your existing partners with small, meaningful gifts. A well-chosen giveaway can leave a lasting impression. At the last conference, unique giveaways like stuffed animals representing different countries were a big hit!

Personalized Name Cards

Swap the traditional logo-only business card for one with your photo to make yourself more recognizable and memorable

Keep the Engagement Going Post-Conference
